Since 2007, ECOSENSE FOR LIVING and host Jennie Garlington have brought public television viewers practical, informative, and fun ways to adopt healthy, green lifestyles.

In the new episodes, celebrated environmental and health experts share facts and remedies about some of our leading health concerns. Dr. Sanjay Gupta, Dr. Andrew Weil, Ken Cook, Laurie David and others show us vital ways to easily detox our living spaces and practice healthier living.

Going green can be easy, invigorating, and surprisingly inexpensive! ECOSENSE FOR LIVING offers engaging content many viewers are hungry to try.

Presented by Kentucky Educational Television (KET), ECOSENSE FOR LIVING *new* episodes #105 (Environmental Body Makeover) and #106 (Environmental Home Makeover) will be available through NETA on 5/18/13 and 5/25/13. Air all six half hour episodes for the complete series! Episodes #101-#104 reread starts 4/20/13 at 1300-1330ET/HDO4.
